Bob,

Thank you for confirming the briefing and hearing schedule. Also, and to reiterate what we said during our January 22, 2016, meet-and-confer session, United identified the subpoenaed back accounts based on its review of: (i) public records identifying accounts seized by the government; (ii) Wells Fargo bank records previously produced in this litigation; and (iii) cancelled checks

Bob,

I have not received any response from you to my e-mails below. Please confirm by tomorrow that we are moving forward with the schedule detailed below. If we do not hear from you by tomorrow, we will request a conference with Magistrate MacKinnon to avoid any further delay in scheduling a hearing.

Bob,

We will accept a filing date for the motion on February 19, if we can agree to the earliest available hearing date, which for Magistrate MacKinnon is March 15, 2016 (Magistrate Judge MacKinnon hears motions on Tuesdays at 10:00am). Based on the February 19 filing date and under Local Rule 37, we will expect to receive from you the Omidis' portion of the joint stipulation for the motion by February 12, and we will provide you our portion for filing on February 19.

Regards,

Bryan
